About Electric-Assisted Bike Travel

Electric-assisted bikes are a new option for bike travel that allows you to relish the joy of cycling while providing electric assistance to reduce resistance and lighten the physical load. You can ride effortlessly even when encountering uphill sections.

- Human power takes the lead, and electric power provides support.
- A test ride is recommended.
- A full charge can provide a range of at least 80-100 kilometers.
- The maximum travel speed is below 25 kilometers per hour when the power is activated.
- Please wear a helmet while riding.

Route Description

The “Highway 11 Cycling Route” route covers a round trip spanning about 168 kilometers, including Taitung Station, Mahengheng Blvd., and reaching the Baishoulian Community in Chenggong Township. This scenic journey encourages travelers to utilize electric-assisted bikes as the mode of transportation and savor the distinct natural landscapes on both sides of the Coastal Mountain Range and the Pacific Ocean. This eco-friendly and leisurely approach provides a profound way to appreciate the beauty of Taiwan’s East Coast.

During this journey, there’s a diverse array of experiences awaiting you. You can take a boat trip from Fugang Fishery Harbor to Green Island (Ludao), where you can enjoy activities such as diving, stargazing, and watching sunrises. You can also witness the ever-changing landscapes shaped by erosion at Fugang Geopark (Xiaoyeliu) and admire the Land Arts Festival works at Jialulan. After passing through Donghe, you can rent an electric-assisted bike at the Doulan (a'tolan) Cultural and Creative Park and head to Moonlight Inn. From this elevated spot, you can take in ocean views, enjoy performances, or make your way to Qianqiao Beach for some water activities.

Continuing your bike ride, take advantage of the receding tide to reach the Sky Mirror of Torik Beach. Capture stunning reflections, pedal along the Baonon Bikeway, and savor the coastal scenery and tranquility along the way. Upon arriving in Chenggong Township, you can rent or return electric-assisted bikes at the East Coast Sea View Hotel. You can leisurely explore the town at your own pace and feel the human touch. Heading north to Changbin and Fengbin, you can explore a variety of unique shops here and experience the distinct vitality of the younger generation.
